To the Honourable the Commons in Parliament assembled

The humble Petition of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament

Most gracious Sovereigns.

Y Our most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lords and Commons being informed that the Magazine of Ammunition in the Tower of London is much diminished, and that the necessity of supplies for your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland is such that they have been forced from thence daily to remove the same, and that the occasion for which the Magazine was placed at Hall is now taken away: And considering it will be kept here with less charge and more safety, and is more convenient for the service of the Kingdom of Ireland.

They therefore humbly pray, That your Majesty will be graciously pleased to give leave to the said Magazine, that it may be removed from the Tower of London, according as shall be directed by both your Houses of Parliament.

And whereas Sir Priests now in Newgate are condemned to die, and by your Majesty have been Reprieved.

They pray, That your Majesty will be pleased to give leave to the said Sir Priests, that they may be taken off, and the said Sir Priests executed, according to Law.

And forasmuch as the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate.

And forasmuch as the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate.

And forasmuch as the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate.

And forasmuch as the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate.

And forasmuch as the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate, and the said Sir Priests are now in Newgate.

on your selves) to give Our consent, for the removal of Our Magazine and Munition (our owne proper Goods) upon such generall reasons, as indeed give no satisfaction to Our judgement.
And since we have made the businesse of Hull your Argument, we would gladly be informed why Our owne inclination (on the generall rumour of the decayes, of Harbours in the Northern parts) was not thought sufficient ground for us to put a person of Honour, Fortine, and unblemished Reputation into a towne and Fort of our owne, where Our owne Magazine lay. And yet the same rumour be warrant enough for you to commit the same Towne and Fort (without our consent) to the hands of Sir John Holtam, with a power unagreeable to the Law of the Land, or the liberty of the Subject, and yet of this in point of Right or priviledge, (for sure we are not withour Priviledge too) we have not all this while complained. And being confident that that place (whatsoever discourse there is of publick or Private Instructions to the contrary) shall be speedily given up if we shall require it, we shall be contented to dispose our Munition there (as we have done in other places) for the publike use of the Petition of Right, Then to be moved (for the

...to say no more) innocently, to you may see Our good People of that charge, and leave it to them to look to, who are the proper owners of it.
And thus, we hope, will give you full satisfaction in this point and that ye do not (as ye have done in the business of the Mission) send this Message out of Complementall Ceremony, resolving to be your own Masters at last. For We must tell you if any attempt, or direction shall be made by any in this matter, without our consent or approbation, we shall esteem it as an Act of violence against us, and declare it to all the world as the heinous violation of our Right and breach of our Privilege. And to send to you our Concerning the 6. Points, concerning the they were deprived by our Warranting informed that they were by some restraint, it is to make the benefit of our former Proclamation, since that, We have issued our another for the correction of their wrongs against Papists, and have most thoroughly published in the world our full power and jurisdiction, without your consent, which shall be found guilty by Law, as being so much against the King's Majesty, and the Warrant, to this effect, that we do hereby declare, that we do not approve thereof, and that if any should, the creation

Execution of these Persons to be necessary to the great and Pious work of Reformation. We refer it wholly to you: declaring hereby that upon such your Resolution furnished to the Ministers of Justice. Our Warrant for their Reception is determined, and the Law to have the course.

And now let Us ask you (for We are willing to husband time, and to dispatch as much as may be, under one Message: God knows the Distractions of this Kingdome want a present Remedy) Will there ever be a time to offer to us, well as to ask of Us? We will propose as many particulars to you having so luck to please as be understood by you. Take your own time for what concerns our particular: But be ye have an early speedy care of the Publike and especially Rule which preserves the Publike The Law of the Land: Preserve the Dignity and Reverence due to that it was well bid in a speech made by a private Person, but published by Order of the House of Commons, this Parliament produce many great enormities. Lust will become a Law, and Envy will become a Law, Covetousness and Ambition will become Lawes, and what Dictates what such Laws will produce, may easily be discerned. So that the Gentleman, and much more very well in defence of the Law, and against Arbitrary Power. It is worth looking over and considering. And if the most Zealous Defence of that Protestant Profession, and the most Resolved Protection of the Law, be the most necessary Duty of a Prince, We cannot believe this miserable Dis-fiance, and Misunderstanding can be long continued between us, We having often and earnestly Declared them to be the chiefest Desires of our Soule, and the End, and Rule of all our Actions.

For Ireland, We have sufficiently, and We hope satisfactorily expressed to all our good Subjects, Our hearty sense of that bad Business, in our several Messages in that Argument, But especially in Our last of the eighth of this Month, concerning Our Resolution for that Service. For the speedy, honourable and full performance whereof, We conjure you to yeeld all possible Assistance and present Advice.
